

Assessment Form for Student Portfolio
Learning Objective 3, stage 1

Goal 3: To develop a basic understanding of Christian systematic and historical theology and ethics, as well as the reading and writing skills to critically engage primary works in Christian theology and ethics.

This objective can be met with the following courses: 109, 208, 220

(I-V to be completed by student)

I. Student Name: _____

II. Faculty: _____

III. Course: _____

IV. Semester Taken: _____

V. Advisor: _____

(VI-VIII to be completed by faculty member)

VI. Final Grade on paper, project, or test submitted for portfolio: _____

VII. Final Grade for course: _____

VIII. How would you evaluate the student on the following specific outcomes?

1-2 Generally below criteria 3 Meets criteria 4-5 Exceeds criteria

Stage 1: Upon completing of an introductory course in Christian theology and ethics (REL 109, 208, or 220), the student should be able to:

1. Demonstrate a familiarity with the basic methods and key themes in Christian theology and/or ethics. _____
2. Demonstrate the interpretative and analytical skills with which to read primary sources in theology and ethics, with the ability to identify key assumptions and distinguishing poor from solid argumentation. _____
3. Demonstrate an ability to write coherently about the topics or authors they have read.

4. To begin to develop their own ethical and theological positions and to articulate them clearly both orally and in writing. _____

Do you have any suggestions for student improvement?

Signature: