

Assessment Form for Student Portfolio
Learning Objective 4

Learning Objective 4: To develop a familiarity with and appreciation for world religious traditions.

This objective can be met with the following courses: 107, 307, 240, 3SG (Understanding Islam)

(I-V to be completed by student)

I. Student Name: _____

II. Faculty: _____

III. Course: _____

IV. Semester Taken: _____

V. Advisor: _____

(VI-VIII to be completed by faculty member)

VI. Final Grade on paper, project, or test submitted for portfolio: _____

VII. Final Grade for course: _____

VII. How would you evaluate the student on the following specific outcomes?

1-2 Generally below criteria    3 Meets criteria    4-5 Exceeds criteria

1. To become familiar with the central teachings, practices and diversity of expression in Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism and Islam including an exposure to classic primary texts in each tradition. Students completing this course should be able to identify and convey the significance of the most important aspects of these religious traditions and demonstrate familiarity with selected scriptures in each tradition.
_____

2. To recognize the wisdom in these religious traditions and appreciate the personal and social benefits experienced by people who practice these religions. Our study of world religions will promote an awareness of and sensitivity to diverse religious practices and customs. Students completing this course should be able to answer the question, "Why would people choose to be Jewish, Muslim, Hindu or Buddhist?" _____

3. To reflect upon one's own religious convictions and to consider how they differ from (or are similar to) the traditions studied in this course. Students completing this course should gain a clearer understanding of their own religious beliefs and practices in relation to other faith systems and worldviews.
_____

Do you have any suggestions for student improvement?

Signature