

Summer 2008 Course Descriptions and Details

The Economics of Entrepreneurship

Geared to Grades 6 – 12

Read any story on the economic revitalization of Ohio and the importance of fostering support for entrepreneurship is imbedded in the article. Just what does that “e” word mean – or its cousin, “intrapreneurship? What kind of thinking, decision making, and character traits do successful entrepreneurs embrace? Using both classroom curriculum resources and interactions with local entrepreneurs – you’ll see for yourself what the free enterprise system supports and what Ohio’s economy needs to survive and thrive. Instructor: Dan Fox

Dates:	July 8-July 11, 2008
Times:	8:30AM – 3:30PM
Locations:	Ashland University, Cleveland Center, 4645 Richmond Rd, #103, Warrensville Hts, 44128 MAGNET, 1768 East 25 th Street, Cleveland, 44114 Field Trip #2 details TBD
Credit:	2 Graduate ED Semester Hours
Tuition:	$326