

GRADUATE & BACHELOR'S PLUS SAP POLICY (ADDENDUM)

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS MAX-TIME FRAME FOR DEGREE COMPLETION

The maximum timeframe for graduate and bachelor's plus students is 150% of the minimum degree/licensure requirements rounded up to the nearest full credit hour. After exceeding the 150% maximum timeframe restriction, the student is no longer eligible for financial aid at Ashland University. Additionally, a student who cannot mathematically complete his or her degree within the allotted maximum credits is also ineligible for aid. Students may submit a SAP appeal to the Financial Aid Office to request a maximum-time frame extension to complete their degree. Refer to the Satisfactory Academic Progress policy for graduate and bachelor's plus students for more details.
