Ashland University IT Email Policy

Email Policy:
AUP Acknowledgement and Consent to Monitoring Individuals accessing AU technology resources are acknowledging they have read the Acceptable Use Policy as well as other applicable policies. Individuals also acknowledge that the systems being used as well as the information contained on them and exchanged between them is the property of the University. The University does not routinely monitor email and other electronic communications but it does have the ability and right to do so without prior notice should the need arise.

Acceptable Use:
University information technology equipment and facilities are comprised of numerous components, including but not limited to such equipment and facilities as computer hardware, multimedia hardware, video equipment, software, documentation, communications support, on-line account administration, support services, direct and wireless network and Internet access, electronic messages system, telecommunication systems and instructional materials....

Any person utilizing any University information technology equipment and facilities understands and agrees they are specifically waiving any expectation or right to privacy in their communications, data, programs, information stored, displayed, accessed, communicated, published, or transmitted on the equipment and facilities. Persons using University information technology equipment and facilities for otherwise privileged communications such as with a personal attorney, physician or clergy hereby expressly waive any such privilege with respect to such communication made using University information technology equipment and facilities in any way.