

Eligibility and Guidelines

- Students receiving scholarship, grant or other benefits that cover 100% of tuition charges are not eligible for the Corporate Partners Scholarship nor are students receiving an Ashland University athletic scholarship or tuition waiver/exchange benefit.
- This scholarship form does not guarantee admission to Ashland University. Scholarship applicants must first apply and be accepted for admission. Applications for admission are available at www.ashland.edu/apply.
- Accepted students must comply with all policies of Ashland University.
- Applicants are encouraged to apply for federal, state or institutional need-based financial aid by submitting a FAFSA at www.fafsa.gov. For more information, please visit the financial aid website at www.ashland.edu/finaid.
- Scholarship Options:
 1. Qualified employees, their spouse and dependent children (as defined by the IRS), who are enrolled full-time and billed the comprehensive rate for tuition are eligible to receive a $500 per term scholarship, in addition to all other financial aid, while pursuing an undergraduate degree.
 2. Qualified employees, their spouse and dependent children (as defined by the IRS) are eligible for a scholarship equal to 10% of tuition on graduate, post bachelors or undergraduate coursework when not billed the full-time comprehensive rate of tuition.
 3. Qualified employees, their spouse and dependent children (as defined by the IRS), who are enrolled part time are eligible for a scholarship equal to 10% of tuition on graduate, post bachelors or undergraduate coursework and, when the corporation pays for 10% or more of the undergraduate student's tuition upfront, Ashland University will add an additional 10% matching scholarship.

Please complete the following steps to verify eligibility

1. Complete the attached Corporate Partners Scholarship Verification Form each academic year.
2. Submit copies of your two (2) most current pay stubs to verify current eligibility.
3. Human Resources Professional contact information on the Verification Form and email the completed form by the tuition payment deadline to:
