2015 Ashland County and Richland County Art Contest
Entry Form and Permission Slip

Name of Artist: ____________________________________________
Age of Artist: ____________________________________________
Grade in School: ___________________________________________
Teacher’s Name: ___________________________________________
School (homeschool entries accepted): _______________________
Parent / Guardian Name: ___________________________________
Home Address (no. and street): ________________________________
                   (city and zip): ________________________________
Phone: ___________________________________________________
E-mail: ___________________________________________________

Which category best describes your submission?
☐ Social Justice    ☐ Resolving Conflict    ☐ Promoting Peace

Please include a sentence or two about how your work represents the category you have selected:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

By submitting this form, I/we understand that all art may be used for advertising and promotion by the Ashland Center for Nonviolence without further consent, compensation, or approval, along with artist names and/or pictures. Submissions may be picked up from the ACN office after January 20, 2016.

Entries must be received by December 4, 2015 at 4:00pm

Submission: Your school may be collecting entries—check with your teacher or principal. Otherwise, submit artwork and entry forms to the Ashland Center for Nonviolence on the Ashland University campus (Bixler Hall, room 116).

Winners will be recognized at the Martin Luther King Day Community Celebration at Ashland University in the University Chapel on Monday, January 18 at 7 p.m.

Ashland University, Bixler Hall, Room 116, Ashland, OH 44805 • 419.289.5313
www.ashland.edu/acf • acn@ashland.edu