The 2015 OCONLL conference at Ashland University will showcase nurse educators from across the state of Ohio who are using innovative approaches using simulation in the classroom and simulation laboratories. Opportunities for incorporating simulation in the curriculum will be available for the learner new to simulation and to those who have had many years of experience in simulation. Nursing Contact hours will be available. For more information please contact Kathy Rhodes BSN RN @ Kathleen.rhodes@ohiohealth.com. Presenters have disclosed no commercial support.
