

Students taking pre-doctor of ministry courses are considered undergraduate students for financial aid and have up to 12 consecutive months of financial aid eligibility to complete their coursework. Students who complete the FAFSA may be eligible to borrow Federal Direct Loans to help towards their educational costs. Once pre-doctor of ministry course requirements are completed and the student has been fully accepted into the ATS Doctor of Ministry program, graduate level financial aid eligibility will be extended.

STEPS TO APPLY FOR FINANCIAL AID

- 1 Must be accepted for admission into this program and enroll at least half-time (6 credit hours or more).
- 2 File the 2022-23 FAFSA at studentaid.gov/FAFSA and include Ashland University's school code (003012).
Students requesting aid for summer semester should also complete the 2021-22 FAFSA.
- 3 Complete AU's Financial Aid Application at ashland.edu/graduate/financial-aid by clicking on "Steps to Apply for Federal Loans."
Priority will be given to summer loan applications received in early March and Fall/Spring applications submitted by May 1.
- 4 First-time Federal Direct Loan borrowers must complete a Master Promissory Note and Loan Entrance Counseling. All students are encouraged to complete the Annual Student Loan Acknowledgement, which will become a required step in future aid years. Complete these requirements at studentaid.gov.

Independent undergraduate students may be eligible to borrow an aggregate total of $57,500 in Federal Direct Loans. This includes any outstanding loans from an undergraduate degree.
