

Career	Calling	Spiritual Formation Leadership Track
Imagine
Complete PathwayU - email CCLC-AU@ashland.edu to complete this. Learn about the career journeys of alumni: https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLBJtO54KI9bs5urWPVy1uRdvOX_07aclp Meet with the Career Center for Life Calling to help you move closer to your career-related goals Meet with the Career Center for Life Calling to create career-related documents (resume & cover letter) Maintain ongoing communication with your Professional Academic Advisor	Meet with a Life Calling Coach to discuss PathwayU results and career journey videos Consider Occupational Life Calling BUS-151 Class Explore Life Calling https://www.ashland.edu/cobe/about-college/occupational-life-calling/courses Select and attend events sponsored by Career Center for Life Calling, Christian Ministry or other campus organizations Be mindful of your presence on social media; do your posts align with your calling and career goals?	Get connected with a worshipping community Join a faith-based small group Explore a mission trip opportunity or volunteer projects Consider adding Christian Formation & Life Calling (REL-214) to your schedule
Investigate
Partner with a Career Center for Life Calling Team member to complete internet research related to career opportunities you are considering and develop a research grid to record your research findings Meet with the Career Center for Life Calling to update career-related documents (resume & cover letter) and work on career-related skills such as networking https://www.ashland.edu/student-affairs/wisr Maintain ongoing communication with your Faculty Academic Advisor	Meet with Life Calling Coach to process your research grid Consider taking Occupational Life Calling BUS-152 Class https://www.ashland.edu/cobe/about-college/occupational-life-calling/courses Determine and participate in on and off campus opportunities to gain career related experiences Select and attend events sponsored by Career Center for Life Calling, Christian Ministry or other campus organizations	Faith based and personality assessments such as a spiritual gifts test Stay involved with a worshipping community Maintain involvement with a faith-based small group Engage in mission trips and volunteer opportunities

Interact
Conduct informational interviews with professionals in the fields you are considering Research employing organizations and graduate schools (if applicable) Participate in job shadowing, volunteerism, campus employment and summer job/internship opportunities related to your areas of interest Meet with Career Center for Life Calling to explore if utilizing LinkedIn fits your goals, update career-related documents, and work on career-related skills such as networking and interviewing Maintain ongoing communication with your Faculty Academic Advisor	Update your Life Calling Coach on your career journey Consider taking Occupational Life Calling BUS-152 Class https://www.ashland.edu/cobe/about-college/occupational-life-calling/courses Determine next steps on your Life Calling journey Select and attend events sponsored by Career Center for Life Calling, Christian Ministry or other campus organizations.	Continue conversations around faith and career Explore internship opportunities related to faith/career integration Utilize the results of your faith based and personality assessments Stay involved with a worshiping community Maintain involvement with a faith-based small group Reflect on your personal growth and development from mission trips and service opportunities
Implement
Utilize technology tools to support your job or graduate school search: https://www.ashland.edu/student-affairs/career-center-life-calling Continue to build your professional network https://www.ashland.edu/student-affairs/wisr Meet with The Career Center for Life Calling for continued career support and guidance Maintain ongoing communication with your Faculty Academic Advisor	Create a strategic job search plan that supports your Life Calling goals Consider taking Occupational Life Calling BUS-153 Select and attend events sponsored by Career Center for Life Calling, Christian Ministry or other campus organizations	Seek greater leadership opportunities within campus ministry Discuss your faith/career integration with the Office of Christian Ministry Continue internship opportunities for faith/career integration Stay involved with a worshiping community Maintain involvement with a faith-based small group