Clayton Hall is adjacent to Redwood Hall and located between Myers Hall and the Senior Apartments. Clayton Hall is an upper-class hall. However, freshman students accepted into the Honors Program have the option to live on the 4th floor in a Living-Learning Community. The Honors Department office is located on the 1st floor. Clayton Hall has suite-style living with a study lounge on every floor. There is a main lobby and large study area on the first floor. Laundry facilities, kitchen and game/recreation areas are in the basement.
