The retention rate of students actively involved in religious life is 89% (2nd only to scholarshiped athletes & honors students).

According to the 2011 National Study of Student Involvement, 45% of AU students participate in religious life activities.

Since 2004 the Isaiah Project has sent over 300 participants on 34 mission trips to 17 countries all around the world.

The Center of Religious Life has provided 18 internships through Ashland Theological Seminary to equip future pastors & ministry leaders.

The Well is the largest weekly gathering of AU students on campus.

The FCA chapter at AU runs the only FCA in a prison in the nation.

Last semester over 200 students participated in 33 small group Bible studies offered through Religious Life.

Every week over 600 people participate in Newman, FCA, and The Well.

Over the last five years, as a result of Christian Activities Day, 45 students have enrolled at Ashland University.